Letter from the Editor

May, 2012

4 years, 720 days, 5,040 hours, 302,400 minutes, 18,144,000 seconds, of life here at Winchester High. For the past four years, from freshmen year in September 2008 to senior year in June 2012, we have learned through experience how to survive high school. As simple as it may seem, you know from experience that it takes dedication, hard work, and aspiration in order to receive your diploma on the first Sunday in June.

You have in your hands, the 83rd edition of the Winchester High School Yearbook. We had an awesome time designing and photographing this book, with great memories and friendships made along the way. This year has been unique. We switched publishing companies and changed our overall design of the book for the better. We hope that we have achieved our goal of: building a stronger school spirit throughout the student body. We want everyone's opinions to matter; after all, this is a student publication that students should have a voice in. We hope we have captured your high school memories and the way you experienced them. We have spent hours working on this book, to meet deadlines and to produce the best book possible that connects with our classmates.

As life goes on, we will remember all of the fabulous, funny and special times we have had over this period of our lives.

Although our Winchester Public School experience ends here, our lives will continue. The best is yet to come. As we depart our childhood from elementary school to middle school and WHS we will always have a common tie, an alumni of Winchester High School, home of the Sachems.

Without all of the faculty, staff, friends, coaches, and parents, we would not be where we are today. They have shaped us to be who we are and influenced who we will become in the future.

Through the past four years, we have made a difference in our community. We have learned to be active citizens who care about the community we live in.

The last four years have flown by; it's hard to believe this stage of our lives is closing its doors. We, the class of 2012 have places to explore, new people to meet, new memories to be made, but our memories, teachers, and friends of Winchester will always have a place in our heart. We have learned how to be on our own, how to survive and now it is our time to go out and use that knowledge to make the world a better, brighter place for everyone.

Congratulations to the Class of 2012 and best of luck to the classes of 2013, 2014, and 2015 who will soon become part of the alumni of Winchester High.

Best of luck to all of you in the future and always remember to creative and have fun with wherever life may take you.

*Your Editor- in- Chief,
Erin M. Mayo*

Michael J. Dunleavy

Michael Dunleavy was a son, brother, and friend to all. He touched the souls of everyone around him. He lives on in this world through his foundation, and through the memories of him we keep inside of us. This is the year in which Michael would have graduated. As a tribute, this yearbook has been dedicated to the strong, courageous, and kind young boy named Michael J. Dunleavy.

Five hundred twenty-five thousand six hundred minutes. Five hundred twenty-five thousand moments so dear. Five hundred twenty-five

LOVE

A song by Conor Dunleavy

Dedicated in November 2002

In loving memory of his cousin Michael Dunleavy

*"Love is like a dove.
The moment I felt the love in the air,
I knew he would be there.
The first time I saw him I knew,
we'd be best buddies until the end.
My dream is that we will be reunited some day.
That's my dream,
I hope it comes true."*

"IT'S REALLY GREAT TO BE ABLE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE THROUGH SERVICE" -ERIN MAYO

"The best part about the Youth Center is that it's really just like a big, happy family" -Erica Pedersen

"It's awesome having a place to connect with everyone and having an outlet to do positive service work and events"-Elli Loria

Throughout the year, the Winchester Youth Center Peer Leaders run and participate in a huge array of projects ranging from haunted houses, to coffeehouses, to the annual Habitat for Humanity trip. Not only is being a peer leader a chance to meet a lot of really cool people, but its also meant to prove the fact that you don't need to make bad decisions to have fun!

Encounter the Gospel of Life

By: Jaxi Nigro and Jenna DiTullio

Encounter the Gospel of Life is a one week service trip at the University of Maryland, College Park. Youth groups from Maryland and Boston unite and take part in acts of community service. St. Mary's Parish is the only youth group from Boston to participate in this week of service. Led by Sal Caraviello, it would not be possible to have that "crazy group of kids from Boston" to travel all the way to Maryland. This trip assigns teens to different "sites" in the most unfortunate parts of Washington D.C. and Maryland. Even though the food was awful and the rooms were not air-conditioned, it made the "family that prays together, stay together."

Seniors:

Expedition to Ecuador

Connect & Commit

Expedition to Ecuador Service Trip By, Chloe Georgaklis

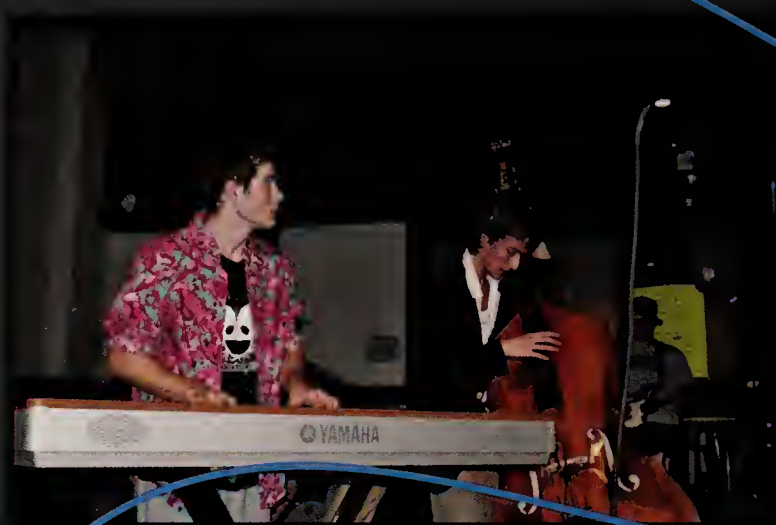

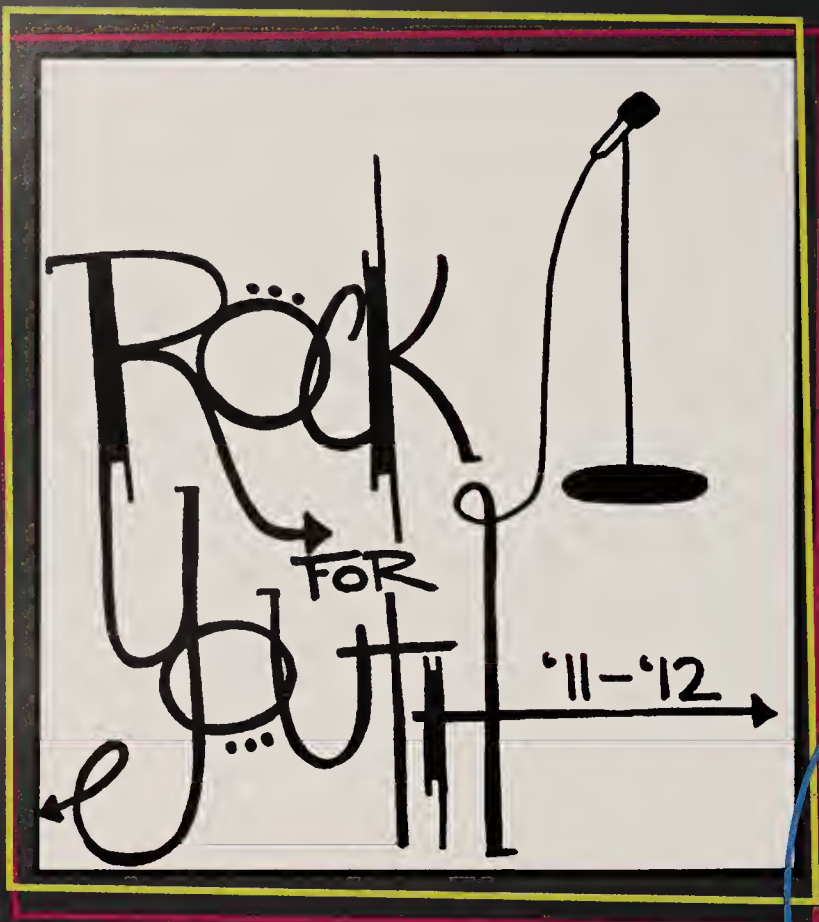

Exactly two years ago, 16 students, from Winchester High School, including me, signed up to go on a service trip to Ecuador. Not knowing what we were getting ourselves into, we all met for our first meeting to get a feel for who we were about to go on this adventure with. Not knowing it then, I would form some of the closest relationships that I could have never imagined.

The trip was amazing. The first couple days in the new country was a culture shock. The people, music, and food were so different that it took a while to get used to. We flew into Quito and from there, started our journey. From being woken up by roosters and cows, to sheep and Llamas, we learned how to cope in the different climates of the hills and volcanoes to the Amazon Rain Forest. Then, through the Amazon and white water rafting on the Napo River we left for our community service part. After spending a week with the village, covered in paint, we were sad to leave for we made many close friendships with the children we met in the community. Afterwards, we went to the markets which were filled with bright native clothing and the smell of steaming meat.

Many landslides came our way, figuratively and literally, but as a group we had to figure out how to get around them. That is one of the most important assets I acquired from the trip and I learned to live in the moment because you never know when you are going to leave. My passion working with the kids may have opened a road for me in the future. The whole culture experience and morals learned on the trip will stay with us forever.

2011-2012 Band List:

- Sulfubreze
- The Coppertones
- The Third Wing
- The LPs
- Jazz Seance
- Entering Milford
- Jimmy Lazer & The Robots
- Wizened Man Face

Rock for Youth remains one of the most popular annual events run for Winchester teenagers, as well as for teenagers in the surrounding towns. Sponsored by the Winchester Youth Center and run by the peer leaders, R4Y is a great place for people to hang out on a Friday night, and gives bands who normally wouldn't get to play for a audience a chance to showcase their talent.

Why we Love Rock for Youth:

- "I think it is an awesome way to support other students in the high school while at the same time having something different to do on a Friday night"

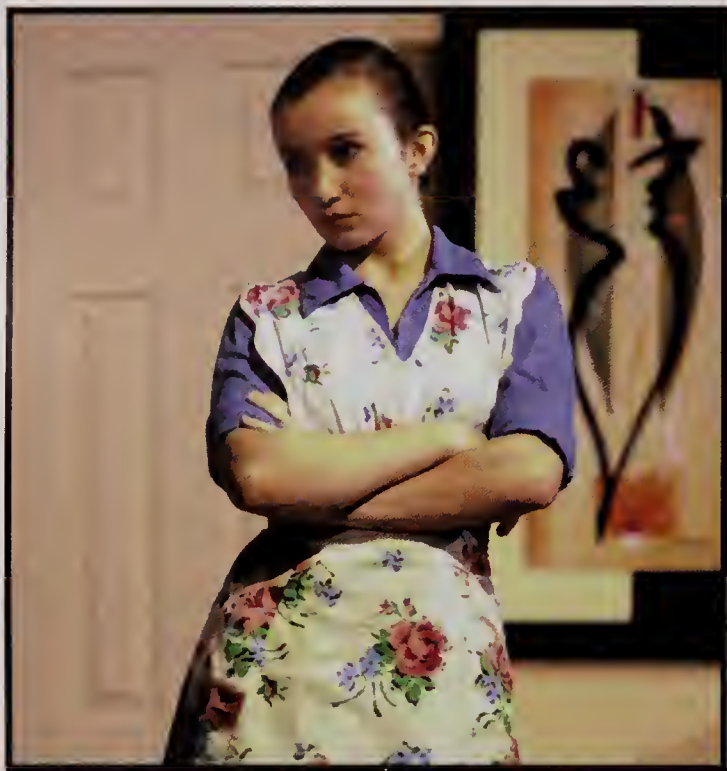

- "I personally like Rock for Youth cause it gives local bands a chance to showcase their talents"

- "It gives kids a great chance to be able to showcase their talents to a peer audience"

BOEING BOEING

Boeing Boeing is the non-stop comedy performed by the members of 'Curtain and Cue'. Directed by Jenna DiTullio and Carol Alexander, this play is centered in Paris, France during the 1960's. There, in the city, an architect by the name Bernard (Cam Schmidt) juggles three fiancées, all of whom are air hostesses. The American- Janet (Christina O'Neil), the French- Jacqueline (Grace Burchard), and the German- Judith (Jenna Bittner) all arrive and leave the apartment thinking that they are the only ones. This is achieved by Bertha (Elizabeth Keith), Bernard's housekeeper who suffers greatly due to the stress of all of the fiancées. To add to the stress Bernard's old school friend Robert (Marc Frongillo) arrives unexpectedly, and Bernard shows him the ropes on how to live in paradise in a polygamous despotism.

But trouble arises when the Boeing jet has been introduced, causing all of the fiancées schedules to be changed. Many lies are told to convince the ladies that each are still the only one and as the night continues, the lies become twisted, making the fiancées curiosity and suspicion rise. By the end of the night nerves are frayed and the truth is uncovered leaving Bernard and Jacqueline a couple as well as Robert and Judith. Janet leaves to marry for money and Bertha stays after many threats of quitting.

I want my death to be a gift, a birth.
When in that final breath I breathe myself back to God. I want to be drawn into you also, into a world
of stars and roaring seas.
And so, as I am breathed back into the heart of this world into hopes and dreams and joys of the people, into the yearnings and the tears and sorrows of this world my death will be a birth, and a gift.

YEARBOOK

As Herff Jones motto says "We speak yearbook." We literally do. For the entire school year, the 30 dedicated staff members ranging from Freshmen to Seniors work hard to publish a book that will be referenced for years to come! We spend all year, writing articles, taking pictures, doing layout and having fun all at the same time so that when you look back on your high school years, your memories will come rushing back! We put as much time into this book as a varsity sport. Unlike sports, when practices end, you go home. With yearbook, the work doesn't end until March 1, when our book goes to print. Lead by Editor in Chief, senior, Erin Mayo and adviser Mrs. Baker, the book would not be possible without our fabulous staff who work tirelessly to create publication that will forever be tied to the culture of WHS. We are dedicated to what we do and we love it more than anything! It is the hopes of the yearbook staff, that when you open your yearbook years from now, you will treasure the fond memories of Winchester High.

Yearbook is headed by our Editor-in-Chief, Erin Mayo, and wonderful adviser Mrs. Baker

Ashley M. Malloy

Dear Ashley -

Wow! You're a senior graduating and getting ready to go on to bigger and better things. Where have 18 years gone? It seems like yesterday when we held you in our arms for the first time and how proud your Dad and I felt at that moment. Now you are getting ready to go off to college, and Dad and I are even more proud of the beautiful, strong, independent, young woman that you have grown up to be. We know that you will be successful at whatever you set your mind to. Remember that you are number one, look out for yourself, always be true to yourself, keep your faith and always follow your dreams. Though there may be challenges along the way and the road may be bumpy, things will always work themselves out and your family will always be there for you. The one thing that will never change is all the "love" that your family has for you and that we wish you every success in life. May God Bless you and watch over you as you start a whole new chapter in your life. We know your guardian angels above will be watching over you and guiding you.

To our successful daughter Elena:

To laugh often and much, to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children, to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends, to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others, to leave the world a little bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition: to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived.

This is to have succeeded!

--Emerson

Love forever and best wishes for your continued success!

Annie DeRosa

Dear Annie,

From the day you were born, you were special. As you grew, you became your own person with your own ideas and your own way of doing things. When you entered Kindergarten you learned about the "Golden Rule"...treat other people as you would like to be treated...and that is how you have lived your life.

You are kind-hearted, sensitive, respectful, and have a passion for life. You are always willing to help and I truly believe you have never met a stranger. You have everything you need to face the world; intelligence, courage, talent, an awesome sense of humor, and a deep sense of caring and compassion; but most of all you radiate goodness. I am inspired by your search to live a true and good life.

As you travel through life always remember that your family's love and pride will go wherever you go. You will always be our joy, our happiness, our song. A daughter and her love are forever. You are everything we dreamed of; a good friend, an amazing sister and a wonderful daughter.

Congratulations and Good Luck, Annie!

Love, Dad, Mom, Christopher, Michael & Jimmy

We begin by thanking you for memories that will last a lifetime. By four you were the best two handed spaghetti eater on the block. At six the soccer ball only knocked you over half of the time. By eight your beaming smile and happy gait blew the grayest clouds far from sight. In high school, you were the one who remembered what the rest of us struggled to recall. Your sports, presence and grades have completed our lives. Most of all, your love will always be cherished. Now it is time to complete your future. Your mind, soul and spirit will fly you to the dreams of your choice. So dream on precious daughter and live as full as you have since the day you were born.

WAVES OF CHANGE Former Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak, who had been in power since 1981, was ousted in 2011.

He was later put on trial for allegedly ordering the killing of protesters. EGYPTIAN PROTESTERS Waving their national flag and shouting slogans, thousands crowded Cairo's Tahrir Square to demand political change as anger grows with the military rulers over the slow pace of reform. TOGETHER IN PROTEST The flags of Syria, Tunisia, Yemen, Egypt and Libya were painted on participants' palms during a demonstration in Yemen.

ARAB SPRING

PROTESTS ACROSS THE MIDDLE EAST brought changes to Arab nations large and small. Uprisings began in Tunisia, where, as 2010 ended, a young vendor protesting the confiscation of his wares set himself on fire. Discontent spread to Egypt and Yemen as 2011 began, and in the months that followed those governments and leaders from Bahrain, Libya and Syria were under siege. By year's end, the presidents of Tunisia, Egypt and Yemen had stepped down and Libya's Moammar Gadhafi and his son Mutassim had been assassinated. Tunisians went to the polls in October 2011 and the Egyptian election took place just a month later. The protests continued despite high costs: thousands of lives (5,000 in Syria alone) and billions of dollars were lost.

A shooting spree at a youth summer camp occurred just two hours after a car bomb explosion near the Prime Minister's office. EUROPEAN DEBT CRISIS Financial woes abroad continued as investors feared government debt levels precluded some countries' abilities to prevent economic collapse. ## CATASTROPHIC DESTRUCTION

THE MOST POWERFUL EARTHQUAKE ever to hit Japan was an undersea megathrust in March 2011. The 9.0 temblor, which lasted nearly five minutes, caused tsunamis that flooded cities more than five miles inland and sent tidal waves crashing to the United States. In addition to local damage done by the earthquake and accompanying tsunami, the event crippled three Fukushima nuclear reactors, releasing dangerous levels of radiation.

In the NBA, the focus was primarily on cutting player salaries to help struggling teams. Both sides remained far apart on just about every major issue. They settled in late November, agreeing to a 66-game schedule, with the first games set for Christmas Day, cutting two weeks off the regular season. The NFL lockout lasted from March 11 to July 25. Once an agreement was reached, the players won additional benefits; the continuation of a 16-game regular season schedule, improvements in player safety and increased injury protection. Almost as soon as an agreement was reached, trades, deals, cuts and contracts were made.

IT STARTED SO INNOCENTLY. IT consultant Sohaib Athar (@ReallyVirtual) had moved to remote Abbotabad, Pakistan to escape the rat race. While Navy SEALs were involved in a firefight on Osama bin Laden's compound, Athar was lightheartedly complaining that the copters were keeping him awake. Unknowingly, he was the first to report the mission using Twitter. The attack on the 38,000-square-foot compound was followed by bin Laden's burial at sea.

NO MORE UNLIMITED DATA PLANS Verizon announced that, beginning in July, it would offer tiered data plans, calling unlimited plans "unsustainable."

DEMISE OF TWINKIES? Maker Hostess filed for bankruptcy (again), but there was no indication the sweet treats would become extinct.

FROM OPRAH TO OWN After 25 seasons on air, media mogul Oprah Winfrey pulled the plug on her talk show and created her OWN channel.

PUTTING A TIMESTAMP ON THE YEAR'S FADS/NEWS

BACON MANIA

IT'S EVERYWHERE! From bacon bandages to an ever-growing array of edible products, bacon prevailed. Bacon-flavored cupcakes, lip balm and dental floss found their way to market.

TEBOW MANIA

FORMER HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER and Denver Broncos QB Tim Tebow inspired fans when — surrounded by celebrating teammates — he knelt in prayer following a victory. As with other posing phenoms, photos and videos of people "Tebowing" and unaffected by their incongruous surroundings were common.

BACK TO THE FUTURE Nike started selling its Marty McFly self-lacing shoes in September, but it was the Air Jordan XI Concord that caused chaos, lines and holiday shopping scenarios that required police assistance. PLANKING It wasn't enough to lay face down, expressionless with your arms at your side and fingers and toes pointed. To "count" as planking, a photo or video needed to be posted online.

EVERYTHING OLD...

Instagram and Pinterest allowed photographers and crafters to create and share online. CRAZY FOR COUPONS From TV shows and websites teaching people to save to online services like Groupon and Living Social, it was all about getting more for less. MIA (MISSING IN ACTION) Thanks to Twitter, the world was very aware of a 20-inch cobra thought to be missing from the Bronx Zoo. After a week of searches, the three-ounce female was discovered onsite.

TRY IT FRIED...

KOOL-AID BALLS New at the San Diego County Fair: a fried treat resembling a donut hole, flavored with cherry Kool-Aid. The vendor sold thousands.

MOON PIE With its graham cracker cookies, marshmallow filling and chocolate (or flavored) covering, this treat was also popular fried.

CANDY BARS A favorite at fairs for years, fried Snickers and other flavors were also found battered, fried and served a la mode on dessert menus.
